GENERAL NEWS.

The Dreaded Scourge.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—The Surgeon General has a dispatch from Collector Goodrich at Brownsville, saying that the first case of yellow fever occurred at Matamoros a month ago and was introduced through Bagdad, Mexico, by railroad tramps from Tampico. The average daily deaths in Matamoros for the past ten days will be twenty. The disease appeared at Brownsville fourteen days ago, deaths ten or twelve. Several distinct types of fever prevail in both cities. No new developments to-day. The disease is in statu quo; 62 cases here.

BROWNVILLE, August 12.—Two new cases to-day. No deaths. Cortinas Ranch, twelve miles from here, has five cases; Matamoros has 500 cases; three deaths to-day.

Almost Lynched.

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., August 12.—The primary hearing in the case of the man charged with an outrage on Miss Bond, a school teacher at Blue Mound, is concluded. The result is that Wm. J. Montgomery is released, and Emanuel Clements, Lee Pettis and John C. Montgomery are held to await the action of the grand jury. An immense crowd gathered around the jail, forced open the door and took out Montgomery, Clements and Pettis. They were strung up to a tree for about a minute and then let down and exhorting to confess, but all three protested their innocence. Mr. Bond, father of the outraged girl and prosecuting attorney, appealed to the crowd to let the men stand their trial, and the men were returned to jail.

Campaign Documents in Demand.

NEW YORK, August 12.—A Tribune's Washington special says: Officers of the Republican Congressional Committee report a healthy interest in the coming political struggle, showing itself in every State. The demand for campaign documents is almost unprecedented, so early. The Committee already have issued twenty documents in regard to the work of the Democratic Congressional Committee: Rosecrans, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, says: "We are sending out a good many documents, but we have not yet really established ourselves. I think we shall have our work in good condition by September first."

Will Not Resign.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—A rumor is in circulation here to the effect that the National Republican Committee asked ex-Senator Dorsey, present Secretary, to resign and that a reply has been received from him, stating that he will do so till his case in court is settled either one way or the other. A member of the Committee said to-day the question of asking Dorsey's resignation was broached, but it was decided that the committee had no right to take any steps in the matter until some result had been reached in the trial.

About Those Cartridges.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 12.—Relative to the reports of Indians in Arizona being supplied with cartridges by soldiers, Charles Sonntag, agent of the United States Cartridge Company, of Lowell, Mass., explains that all cartridges made by the company, which is a private firm, have U. S. wrought on them. They are for sale all over Arizona, and the United States service cartridges used by the military have no brand on them.

Ended in Bloodshed.

DALLAS, Texas, August 12.—The family feud in Denton county ended in bloodshed last night. A farmer named Green was mortally wounded by his step-son, named Steele, on account of Mrs. Steele's second marriage. Green also killed his assailant. A brother of each of the combatants fought later and a second Steele, it thought, cannot survive his wounds.

Favorable Condition of Crops.

CHICAGO, August 12.—The Times publishes reports on the condition of crops from the most important grain growing regions of the West. The tone is generally favorable. Wheat harvest is now in progress in most sections and good weather for harvest work is reported.

An Insane Deed.

LITTLE ROCK, August 12.—In Clay county, near the Missouri line, Wednesday, a farmer named Neal Harris shot his little son dead; fired at, but missed, his daughter, then pointed a pistol at his own temple. fired and fell dead at his wife's feet.

Hanged.

PALESTINE, Texas, August 12.—Yesterday Charles Thomas, colored, was hanged for the murder, at Houston, of McMerro. Thomas had killed four men during his residence in Palestine.

Railroad Completed.

BILLINGS, August 12.—This afternoon the last rail was laid that completed the Northern Pacific between St. Paul and the crossing of the Yellowstone river.

Accommodation for the Deaf.

FALMOUTH, 12.—The steamship Hermann will take 500 deaf passengers of the wrecked steamer Mosel. The cabin passengers of the Mosel will await the arrival of another steamer.

Old Steve Meany Caged.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—Acting Secretary of State Davis has been in communication with Minister Lowell at London in reference to the case of Stephen J. Meany of New York, who was arrested at Dublin, Ireland, for an alleged violation of the repression act. Secretary Davis yesterday telegraphed Minister Lowell to give the case immediate attention and report to the department. An answer was received from Minister Lowell to-day, stating that the Foreign Office has no official information on the subject, but he understood Meany would be released. Secretary Davis thereupon telegraphed Minister Lowell to get information as to whether Meany is free or not.

Desperados Killed.

PADUCAH, Ky., August 12.—Intelligence just received that a mob attacked the Campbell boys, desperados, in a house in Caldwell county. The Campbells killed one of the mob. The house was then fired and the Campbells were driven out and killed with bullets.

More Explorers.

LISBON, August 12.—A dispatch from Buenos Ayres states that a vessel conveying Lieutenant Bove and members of the Italian Antarctic expedition has been wrecked off Cape Horn. All on board were saved.

Twenty New Cases.

BROWNVILLE, Tex., August 12.—Twenty new cases of yellow fever to-day, all Mexicans. No deaths for the last twenty hours.

A New Mexico Hanging.

SILVER CITY, N. M., August 12.—Elijah Franklin was hanged here yesterday for the murder of a deputy Sheriff.

Senator Hill's Death Expected.

ATLANTA, Ga., August 12.—Senator Hill is worse. His death is looked for to-morrow or next day.

Severe Rain Storms—Railroad Washed Out.

TUCSON, August 14.—A heavy thunder and rain storm passed over this section last night; 3.64 inches of rain fell. Severe washouts are reported both east and west. On the Southern Pacific railroad, at Picacho, a freight was dished this morning, and another at the Cienega. Not less than twenty miles of track is damaged. All available force is out, and repairs will be speedily made. Many thousands of dollars worth of property was destroyed in Tucson. Several buildings were washed down and many others seriously damaged. It is still raining.

Sonora News.

TUCSON, Aug. 14.—Magdalena, Sonora, advises of the 12th, say the track of the Sonora Limited Railroad is now laid three miles north of that point, and graders are far in advance of the track-layers. The gap between Arizona and Sonora divisions is seventy miles with grading complete in Arizona. Heavy rains and severe washouts on the Sonora Railway reported.

A New Deal.

CHICAGO, August 14.—A Pittsburg special says: The labor situation has assumed a new phase on account of the reported sale of the workingmen's organization to old political parties. It is alleged that the coming convention of workingmen at Philadelphia is to be packed with "rounders" and "feelers" who can outstride the laboring class, and carry out the plans of politicians. Garret is consequently preparing a circular designed to prevent this scheme, and it will be signed by officials representing 40,000 workingmen in Pittsburg.

Yellow Fever.

LAREDO, Tex., August 13.—During the twenty-four hours ending at 8 p. m., August 12, Brownsville had twenty-five new cases of yellow fever and one death, Matamoros twenty-three new cases and eight deaths.

LAREDO, August 14.—For the 24 hours ending at 8 p. m. on the 13th, Brownsville had twenty-three new cases of fever and one death.

MATAMOROS, August 14.—One new case and eight deaths.

Secor Robeson.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—A Washington special says: Private information from New Jersey is that Robeson will probably be beaten for the nomination in his district. It is said that Sewall, who defeated Robeson for the U. S. Senate last year wants to see his enemy retired to private life and kept there. He is afraid if Robeson is re-elected to Congress he will be the successor of his Democratic colleague, McPherson, in the Senate.

Must Keep Out.

NEW YORK, August 14.—The Graphic's Washington correspondent says the Collector of Customs of Baltimore has forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury a communication asking for instructions upon an application made for the landing of a party of Chinese laborers en route home from Cuba. Acting Secretary French has replied that under the Chinese emigration bill they can not land.

Work of an Incendiary.

MAKATO, Kansas, August 14.—A fire this morning destroyed almost the entire business portion of the town. Loss unknown. It was the work of an incendiary.

A Brutal Crime.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., August 14.—This morning, Alexander Weiber, a German saloon-keeper, and his wife and son, seven years old, were found murdered in their house. The premises were ransacked, but nothing was apparently taken. Their heads were crushed, throats and bodies cut and mangled in a brutal manner. Several persons have been arrested on suspicion.

Death of a Prominent Business Man.

NEW YORK, August 14.—Jesse Hoyt, one of the most prominent business men in this city, died to-day. He had been largely interested in the grain and railroad interests of the West, and at the time of his death was a director of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad.

An Enterprising Railroad.

DENVER, August 14.—The Utah extension of the Denver and Rio Grande railway is completed to Cimarron, 330 miles from Denver and 400 miles from Salt Lake. The preparations for rapid track laying indicate the opening of the new line by December 31.

Corraling Sympathy for Steve.

WASHINGTON, August 14.—In the star route case Carpenter began his address in behalf of Dorsey. His wife and boys were present.

The Yuma Delegation.

(Special to the Epitaph.)

YUMA, August 14.—F. Laumeister and G. Thurlow elected Republican delegates to Phoenix. The Chairman appoints three more from Ehrenberg, Castle Dome and Silver District. Dissatisfaction prevails.

A Clever Robbery.

CHICAGO, August 15.—Early this morning two men entered the First National Bank, in Kewaukee, Ill., locked the cashier and lady assistant in a vault, and carried off $20,000. The citizens are scouring the country in pursuit.

HUNTING DOWN THE CRIMINALS.

Kewanee, Ill., August 15.—The bank robbers were seen this morning near Mineral, Ill. Parties are in pursuit, with every prospect of arresting both men before night. Over 300 men are scouting in every direction. Mr. Pratt and Miss Palmer are in bad shape to-day. Miss Palmer is badly bruised and feverishly prostrated by excitement. Business houses and shops are all closed, the owners joining in the chase.

A Celebration.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 15.—The seventeenth annual exposition of the Mechanics' Institute was formally opened this afternoon in the new pavilion. The opening address was delivered by the President, B. Cornwell, the oration by Chancellor Horton, and was followed by a recitation and musical exercises. The attendance was quite large at the opening and the display very creditable. The exposition will continue for one month.

Murder in Oregon.

PORTLAND, Oregon, August 15.—Particulars have just been received of a cold blooded murder, in Clackamas county. David Morris aged 50 years, out of the throat of a young man named Sterling, an officer, without the least provocation. Morris escaped, but was arrested to-day, and lodged in jail in Oregon city. The murdered man was only 18 years old. Intense excitement prevails, and lynching is feared.

The Dreaded Epidemic.

BROWNVILLE, August 15.—New cases of yellow fever, 10 Mexicans, 2 Americans, 1 death. Six deaths in Matamoros since Saturday. The epidemic is spreading among the poor of the city. Mails will be resumed to all points in the morning. The fever is not so malignant here as in Matamoros. The weather is cloudy.

Another Political Raunch.

QUINCY, August 15.—Gen. Singleton last evening consented to become an independent candidate for Congress, provided the Republicans make no nomination at Whitehall Wednesday. Very likely it will result in the Republicans supporting him, as the district is Democratic by a large majority.

A Fair Alternative.

PITTSBURG, August 15.—A special report comes from Matening Valley that Brown, Bonnell & Co., owners of one of the largest mills in the country, whose payroll is over a million dollars a year, have offered their employees the old wages, and say if the offer is not accepted they will hire non-union men.

Lynched in Iowa.

LAFAYETTE, Ia., August 15.—Bob Young and Charles Griffin (negroes), for the murder of a white man named McCann, some months ago, were hanged by a mob last night. The case was still in the courts. They protested their innocence to the last.

Died Game.

PRINCETON, Ill., August 15.—This morning C. A. Welton, a prominent railroad man and auditor of the Des Moines & Fort Dodge railroad, blew his brains out while an officer was reading a warrant for his arrest on charge of bigamy.

Suicide of a Prelate.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 15.—The Alaska Commercial's steamer, St. Paul, which arrived to-day from St. Michael, brings the news of the death undoubtedly by suicide, of Archbishop Nestor, of the Russian church. The reverend gentleman who has charge of the diocese of Alaska, took passage on the St. Paul for this city, which is his permanent residence. He was missed shortly after leaving St. Michael, and circumstances clearly indicate that he had jumped overboard. He had been troubled for some time past with rush of blood to the head, and appeared at times not quite sound of mind. He was a native of Archangel, aged fifty-six.

The Dreaded Scourge.

LAREDO, August 15.—Ending at 8 p. m. on the 14th, Brownsville had ten new cases and one death.

BELOW THE LINE.

MATAMOROS, August 15.—The fever is spreading in the suburbs; six deaths reported.

Kansas Incendiaries.

MANHATTAN, Kas., August 15.—An incendiary fire here yesterday destroyed fifty thousand dollars worth of property. This is the third attempt to destroy the town. A reward is offered for the arrest of the incendiaries.

Heading off Yellow Jack.

GALVESTON, August 15.—An Austin special says: "The government has proclaimed a quarantine against Mexican ports and authorized counties on the Rio Grande and exposed points to declare quarantine."

An Ohio Blaze.

ARKON, Ohio, August 15.—The large flour mill, owned by Phil J. Chamberlain, was burned this morning. It is supposed that it was fired by tramps. Loss from $25,000 to $35,000.

Another Strike.

BOSTON, August 15.—The longshoremen struck for forty cents per hour, day work, and fifty cents at night; double price Sunday. The steamship companies refuse the demand.

Democratic Nominations.

CAIRO, Ill., August 16.—The Democrats nominated Hon. W. K. Murphy, of Peoria county, for Congress. STANTON, Va., August 16.—Chas. T. Ofeinall was nominated by the Democrats of the Seventh Congressional District.

The Utah Commission Meets.

OMAHA, August 16.—The Utah Commissioners met here to-day, consisting of Hon. Alexander Ramsey, of Minnesota, Chairman; Col. G. L. Godfrey of Des Moines, ex-Congressman Pettigrew of Arkansas, ex-Senator Paddock of Nebraska, and Judge Carleton of Terre Haute, Ind. They will have charge of the Utah elections, and will remain until some time in November and carry out their special work. The first thing is to attend to registration. They will receive and canvass votes and issue certificates of election. One of their most important duties is to disfranchise all known polygamists from voting and holding office. The election of a delegate to Congress comes before the people this fall, and this is followed by the election of a Legislature.

A Cloud Bursts.

MADISON, Wis., August 16.—One of the most violent storms ever known here passed over the city last night and this morning. It seems to have been confined to a radius of twenty-five miles about here. A cloud burst near Cross Plain, deluging the whole valley. Blackearth creek rose with such rapidity that two freight trains were halted as a matter of precaution, and it proved a wise step, for a fifty-foot bridge was carried away just east of the station, and carried nine freight cars into a field near by. Much damage was done to crops, but the extent is not fully known; probably not large.

Yellow Fever.

BROWNVILLE, Tex., August 16.—Twenty-eight new cases of yellow fever—twenty-five Mexicans and three Americans. Three Mexicans died. There are eight cases reported at Fort Brown. At Matamoros seven new cases are reported, five of which are slight, and five deaths reported. Mr. James Butterfield, of the Matamoros and Monterey railroad, is down with the fever. Weather clear but hot.

The Bank Robbers Not Yet Captured. KENWAKE, Ill., August 16.—The bank robbers, who took $20,000 from the bank Monday night, are not yet captured. Parties answering to their description were seen near Napoleon. The job was executed with the utmost coolness, the robbers making out of town in plain sight of a large number of people, with their booty in a satchel between them.

A Prominent Planter Murdered.

LITTLE ROCK, August 16.—Col. N. D. Ellis, a prominent planter, was murdered by John Martin, his foreman, Saturday, on the border of the Indian nation. The murderer fled to the nation and has not been caught.

Killed by Lightning.

ATONISON, Kas., August 16.—A terrific thunder storm passed over this city, this morning, extending from Corning to Irving. At Corning John Butler and two daughters were instantly killed by lightning. The elder, aged 15 years, was standing in the door, when a bolt fell, killing both.

A Twelve Year Old Boy Murderer.

BAY CITY, Mich., August 16.—John Graham, aged twelve, was shot and killed in the neighborhood of the city to-day. It is supposed it was done by a boy named Rivardes, of the same age, by mistake, for one of the family on whose steps the murdered boy was sitting, as Rivardes had a feud with that family.

A Destructive Storm.

BANGOR, Me., August 16.—A most destructive tornado visited Bangor this evening. The wind was terrific. The rain fell in the streets to a great depth, and was accompanied by incessant thunder and lightning. The destruction of property was very great.

A Committee Appointed.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 15.—At the semi-annual meeting of the Board of Trade this evening, a resolution was adopted favoring reciprocity treaties with Mexico and Central America and a committee was appointed to correspond with individual or commercial and legislative bodies.

Sudden Death of Murderer.

MONTREVI, August 16.—Jackson Sweet, who was found guilty of murder and under sentence of death, died suddenly in jail.

A $15,000 Blaze.

BOSTON, August 15.—A fire in the printing and publishing house of Duffy, Cashman & Co. caused a loss of $15,000.

Jackson Republicans.

JACKSON, Miss., August 16.—The Republican convention at Hazlehurst has nominated James Hill for Congress.

A Tough Customer in Jail.

KANSAS CITY, August 15.—Dick Little, a well known member of the old James gang, was arrested here to-day at noon by a United States marshal, charged with complicity in robbing the U. S. paymaster at Muskegon, Ala., March 11, 1881. The amount taken was $5,200, and it is supposed the robbery was perpetrated by Jesse James, Wm. Ryan, who is now serving a 25 years sentence for train robbery, and Dick Little. Little asserts his innocence, and says he can prove that the arrest was the work of the surviving members of the James gang, who have a grudge against him for the information he gave officers which led to breaking up the gang.

A Brutal Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 16.—A Yaquina City, Oregon, dispatch, says: Dr. B. F. Hutchinson, a highly respected citizen, and his son, aged 3, were found murdered to-day. Both were shot. The murders are supposed to be committed by an Indian for robbery. He escaped, but a party of armed men are scouring the country. If caught, he will doubtless be lynched.

Double Murder at Albuquerque.

ALBUQUERQUE, August 16.—At an early hour this morning an unknown man rode up to the residence of Jose Rafael Apodoco, called him to the door and shot him through the head, killing him instantly. Apodoco's brother then appeared at the door, and he, too, was shot dead by the stranger, who made his escape.

Senator Hill Dead.

ATLANTA, Ga., August 16.—About two this morning Senator Hill was found to be rapidly sinking. His breathing was with difficulty. He continued to sleep, however, and at the end of a few minutes after six his death occurred without a struggle. He died from exhaustion.

Ben Hill's Death Recd.

ATLANTA, Ga., August 16.—The funeral of the late Senator takes place Friday. There was present at the Senator's death Mrs. Hill, B. H. Hill, Jr., and wife, Dr. R. P. Bradley and wife, Senator Hill's daughter, C. D. Hill, his son, two nephews of the Senator and Dr. Wright, the attending surgeon.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—In the Star route cases, Carpenter had not completed his argument for the defense when the court adjourned.

The board of audits consisting of the first and second comptrollers of the navy, and the treasurer of the United States, appointed by congress to consider all claims growing out of the illness and burial of President Garfield, received only three claims, viz: Milne & Procter, for furniture, bed and bedding; $16,235; J. Walsh, New York, for embalming the body; $500, and the claims of the employees of the executive mansion, which is for three months salary. Under this apportionment there will be paid $11,413.

A telegram from Senator Brown, received yesterday, announces that Ben Hill will probably not live through the day, and requesting that senators and representatives in Washington be communicated with so that those who desire may be prepared to attend the funeral.

The Star says government employees are responding liberally to the request of the Republican committee for financial aid.

FOREIGN.

A Holy War.

A dispatch from Tangier states that a holy war is being preached throughout Morocco against Christians.

A MODEST REQUEST.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 12.—What Dufferin insists upon in order to secure harmony of action is that no movement of Turkish troops when they are in Egypt should take place without the previous consent of Gen. Wolsley.

ARABI DEFIANT.

NEW YORK, August 14.—The Herald's Alexandria special says: Rouff Pasha arrived yesterday from Cairo and Arabi's camp. He says Arabi will fight to the last. The whole nation backs him. He told me: "I have the moral support of France and Italy; the friendly advice of De Lesseps and the Italian consul, and I have friends among the members of the Stamboul conference. I will fight till the English or my countrymen are exterminated."

THREATENING THE CANAL.

SUEZ, August 14.—The rebels, in great force, have taken up a position immediately threatening the canal. The English admiral occupies the front works. He will not allow any interference from DeLesseps.

FIRES IN REAR OF ARABI.

ALEXANDRIA, August 14.—Fires of considerable magnitude were visible to-day in rear of the enemy's position at King'sman.

His Noble Majesty.

LONDON, August 14.—The King of Zululand (Cetewayo) arrived at Osborne. It is rumored that the Queen, at an interview to be granted him, will inform him of the decision of her government to restore him to his kingdom. It is stated that a British resident will be appointed to reside at Ulaland, the Zulu capital, in order to advise him on questions relative to external relations.

STILL HESITATING.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 15.—The proclamation of Arabi Pasha as a rebel, and authorizing an Anglo-Turkish convention, is not yet decided.

FEARING AN OUTBREAK.

PORT SAID, August 15.—An outbreak is possible at any moment. Ships are ready for action.

WAR TO THE KNIFE.

PANAMA, August 15.—The news from Peru states that the coming war will be one of extermination. Excesses of Chilean troops in the interior have excited the populace, who are rising against them.

NO PLACE FOR ENGLISH.

ALEXANDRIA, August 15.—The sick list of the British troops, before arrival of guards, showed out of a total of 5,400 men, there were 76 invalids, exclusive of the wounded.

ANOTHER STOCK DEAL.

PARIS, August 15.—A banker's telegram from Egypt confirms the report that Arabi Pasha will submit to the Sultan.

Happy Cetewayo.

LONDON, August 15.—Earl Kimberley, Secretary of State for the colonies, will announce to the Lords to-day that it is proposed, under conditions, to restore Cetewayo to his Kingdom of Zululand.

Complicated Europe.

LONDON, August 15.—The Times' Berlin special says it is feared the Russian Cabinet intends to take advantage of the present trouble in Egypt to renew some old claims which were declined by the Berlin Congress.

The Prince of Wales will go to a German bath to drink water. The fact of the Times devoting the first leading article to the health of the Prince of Wales creates a certain sensation.

Robbing Peter to pay Paul.

LONDON, August 14.—It is stated that half of the marines, now stationed in Ireland, will proceed to Egypt as soon as possible.

Death of a Professor.

LONDON, August 15.—Professor William Stanley Jevans, philosopher and professor of political economy, was drowned while bathing at Bix-tail.

LETTERS from all over the county express satisfaction at the action of the Democratic central committee, in the direction of an honest vote.

A NUMBER of Republicans in Tombstone are banding together to "cinch" Blackburn, but he is not alarmed.

The apportionment of representation to the Democratic county convention, offers no loop-holes for political jobbery.

"A SQUARE deal and no jobbery," is the ultimatum of the Democrats of this county and Territory.

DELEGATE CURRY will soon shake hands with his constituents.

COCHISE county warrants are booming.

DIBBLE is quietly stuffing the ballot box.

THE legislative apportionment has been made by the Secretary of the Territory, and it conveys a sense of mortification akin to distress. By the Yavapai fraudulent census the various other counties have been literally disfranchised of representation, unless there is some remedy, and there can be none without a combination of nearly all the counties. There can be no redress obtained from the courts, as they have no jurisdiction in the premises, but the Legislature itself can act, by a reduction of the number of representatives from Yavapai county, and a consequent lessening of the evil results of fraud. The Legislature has the power to judge of the qualifications of those entitled to seats as members, and can reject whoever
